> SCIENTIFIC PROCESS

Dry hair is rough to the touch, dull, fragile and brittle, difficult to untangle and style. This is due to physiological sebum deficiency caused by a sebaceous gland anomaly: sebum secretion is insufficient. This results in poor cohesion between the scales covering the hair: these scales separate, the hair becomes dry and brittle due to a lack of natural lubricant. Hair may also become dry due to overly aggressive hair treatments, untimely brushing or natural factors such as wind, sun, bleached water, etc.

DRY HAIR COMPLEX nourishes the hair and restores its balance, health and beauty.
